The Premiere Workforce and Job Development Center in North Central Ohio

In addition to serving as one of the state's premiere corporate and workforce training centers, The James W. Kehoe Center for Advanced Learning, located in Shelby, Ohio also serves as a valuable community and regional resource.

The Kehoe Center houses a state of the art auditorium with seating up to 200 people, numerous breakout rooms, numerous executive meeting areas, a large general session arena, state of the art computer labs, multimedia facilities, video conferencing equipment, beautiful outdoor grounds and adjacent courtyards and convenient parking.

These areas are available for rent or lease for workshops, corporate retreats, video conferences and conference calls, teleconferences, civic organization meetings, trade shows, as well as large and small seminar needs.

Also, information technology specialists (technicians) may be available for contracted assistance at the center for rental events. Large social gatherings and/or wedding receptions can be facilitated through one of several approved event management companies.
